

BOOK CLUB QUESTIONS

The Lucky Strikes

1. Some people think the first sentence of a novel is the most important. Would you agree or disagree with that, based on this book?
2. What do you think will happen to the characters next?
3. Roxie's relationship with other characters may not be what you'd expect. How do you think that relationship changed the way she interacts with other characters?
4. Because of past events, Roxie is forced to grow up quicker than most teens. How do you think your teenage self would have behaved at the end of the book?
5. Roxie's dad, Jack, jumps to big decisions very quickly. What did you think of his character before you realized the reasoning behind his behavior?

The Lightning Riders

1. The main character suffers from a type of mental illness. Do you have a new perspective after reading this book?
2. There are many interesting characters through the book. If you could invite one character over to your house for dinner, who would it be? Why?
3. What was unique about the setting of the book? How did it enhance or take away from the story?
4. The circumstance that sets the book in motion is call the inciting moment. What was the inciting moment of this book?
5. Did you pick up on any symbolism in the story? What do these objects actually mean? How do the characters interact with these objects?

Next In Line

1. If you were to sum up what you read of this book in one tweet, what would you say in 140 characters?

2. If you could write one more chapter after the ending, what would you write?
3. Being a sixteen year old is hard enough without realizing you're an Angel of Death. Can you relate to any of what Maggie goes through?
4. Maggie's reality is upended in one night. Have you ever experience something similar? How would you react if you were in Maggie's situation?
5. What broader social issues does the book address?

She Dreams in Color

1. This story describes very specific events happening after death. How does the author's perspective differ from yours?
2. If you could relive one day of your life, what would it be? Why?
3. If you could hear this same story from another person's point of view, who would you choose? Why?
4. Color is certainly a theme throughout the novel. Why do you think this particular title was chosen?
5. If the author were to write a sequel to this book, what do you think would happen to the characters?